

Biography: Machael Durham

Machael founded Durham Staffing Solutions in 2000. Prior to establishing Durham Staffing Solutions, Machael consulted throughout the Omaha metro area. Her passion for providing the utmost quality of service to both her clients and candidates is the driving force behind Durham Staffing Solutions' success. Durham Staffing Solutions has been selected as Omaha's Choice Employment Agency presented by the Omaha World Herald for nine years in a row, as well as the Reader's Choice Employment Agency through the Daily Nonpareil.

Machael's commitment to enhancing Durham Staffing Solutions and the industry is illustrated throughout her many lifetime achievements. She was one of the first 12 validated trainers in the nation and was the youngest individual to become a Certified Personnel Consultant. Machael has served the staffing industry as Certification Chair, Vice President, and President of Iowa Association of Staffing Professionals. Machael was also on the National Certification Review Board. Additionally, Machael held the role of Chairwoman on the Area 13 Regional Business and Marketing Advisory Board.

Machael is the recipient of numerous awards exemplifying her leadership and expertise, including Nebraska Business Woman of the Year from the NRCC's Business Advisory Council and Corporate Achiever award presented by the Nebraska Chapter of Multiple Sclerosis. Machael was also honored with the Midlands Business Journal's 40 Under 40 award, as well as the Ronald Reagan Republican Gold Medal. Additionally, Machael is a trustee of the Business Ethics Alliance and a Lewis Central Education Foundation Hall of Fame member.

Machael is an active board member of the Pioneer Hills Office Park Association. When she is not hard at work, Machael volunteers at the Open Door Mission and at local high schools, in which she helps students prepare for future career opportunities by holding mock interviews and aids in creating resumes.
