

Mike Riedmann has had an impressive career in real estate and community leadership, particularly within Omaha, Nebraska. Here's a summary of his accomplishments:

- Real Estate Career:
 - Grew up in Omaha and graduated from Archbishop Ryan High School.
 - Licensed Realtor since graduating from Wayne State College.
 - Started as a sales associate and became Sales Manager of NP Dodge Company's Dodge Street office in 1990.
 - Promoted to President of NP Dodge Residential Sales Division in 1993.
 - Served as President of NP Dodge Residential Sales Division from 1994 to 2021, and is now President Emeritus.
- Leadership Roles:
 - President, Metropolitan Omaha Builders Association (2005).
 - President, Nebraska Realtors Association (2002).
 - President, Omaha Board of Realtors (1997).
 - Held various directorial roles in the Certified Residential Broker Council, National Association of Realtors, and Nebraska Realtors Association.
- Awards and Honors:
 - Nebraska Realtor of the Year (2007).
 - Omaha Area Board of Realtors (OABR) Realtor of the Year (2006).
 - Wayne State College Alumni Achievement Award.
 - Inducted into the Wayne State College Athletics Hall of Fame.
- Community Involvement:
 - Former Chairman of the Realtor's Political Action Committee.
 - Member of the Mayor's Fair Housing Advisory Board.
 - Served on the Omaha by Design Board of Directors and the Omaha City Planning Urban Review Board.
 - Former Chairman of the Omaha Municipal Land Bank Board.
 - Involved with the Wayne State College Foundation Executive Committee.
 - Served as a Director in the Nebraska & Southwest Iowa Region of the American Red Cross.
 - Chairperson of the Builders Foundation and Co-Chairperson of The Builders of the Future Committee.

Mike Riedmann's extensive experience and contributions to both the real estate industry and his community are remarkable. His leadership roles and accolades reflect a career dedicated to excellence and service.