Lois Jordan started her career in Long Term Care as a Certified Nurse Aide in high school and worked her way through LPN school. Eleven years later she completed her training and licensure as a Registered Nurse followed by Advance Practice Certification in Gerontology. Wanting to broaden her knowledge base even more she returned to school to earn her Bachelor's Degree in Healthcare Management while completing the Administrator in Training program for Long Term Care Administration. Lois is a Graduate Fellow of the first American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (now LeadingAge), Leadership Class of 2007. Lois began her career with Midwest Geriatrics in May of 1997 as an RN, Nurse Manager. She was promoted to Director of Assisted Living in December of 1997 and Vice President of Operations in 2000. In 2007 she was promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer and continues to serve in that role.

Lois serves on the following boards and committees:

- Chair, LeadingAge Nebraska Board of Directors
- Vice Chair, Notre Dame Housing Board of Directors, Omaha
- Member, Coordinated Transit Committee, Metropolitan Area Planning Agency (MAPA)
- Member, Florence Kiwanis
