

Omaha City Council Member Aimee Melton

Council-member Aimee Melton was elected to the City Council in 2013 and was re-elected in 2017 and 2021. Aimee is Vice-President of the City Council and serves as Chair of the Law Committee and a member of the Public Safety Committee, Legislative Committee and Library Committee. In addition, Aimee serves on the Omaha/Douglas Public Building Commission, the Criminal Justice System Management Council, and is a member of the Community Leaders of America.

Aimee holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Nebraska-Omaha and a J.D. from Creighton University School of Law. In her early career, Aimee was a prosecutor in the Douglas County Attorney's office in the Domestic Violence Unit. She then became a founding partner at the law firm of Reagan, Melton & Delaney and RMD Mediation Center. Aimee practices family Law and is a Family Law Mediator and certified Parenting Coordinator. She has successfully argued numerous cases in front of the Nebraska Court of Appeals and Nebraska Supreme Court. And in 2024, Aimee received the honor of becoming a Lifetime Fellow of the Nebraska State Bar Foundation.

Aimee and her husband Scott have two adult children, Jacob and Thomas, and another son, Jimmy, who is a senior in high school this year. In her free time, Aimee enjoys golfing with her friends and family, volunteering to help those in need, and supporting other political candidates running for office.
